Dear Mr. Newman:

Enclosed, herewith, is a slide belonging to you which was left in the carousel the day of your lecture to the Seminar students.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Rose Mangini". The script is cursive and fluid, with the first name "Rose" written in a larger, more prominent hand than the last name "Mangini".

Dear Evelyn and Eric:

The Society's 125th anniversary celebration is but a month away. All indications are that September 9-10 will be an exciting moment in our Society's history. Your contribution to its success is most appreciated.

Doris and I shall be hosting a dinner party on the evening of September 8 and we should be honored to have you attend. It will be at Windows on the World, 1 World Trade Center in downtown New York, beginning at 6:30 P.M.

May I ask you to direct your reply to Miss Mangini at the ANS (212/234-3130).

Most cordially,

Harry W. Bass, Jr.
President
